12.05.24	#RSR-132	Family Fixer Part 2 In Part 2 of this major waterfront makeover, host Elizabeth Hart leads the renovation team through a maze of challenges, including uneven ceilings and a tiny layout. After more than a year of construction, everything from the handmade staircase to the custom hideaway bed finally comes together to create the perfect place for family gatherings.
12.12.24	#RSR-133	Freedom Ride We meet a U.S. Army veteran who struggles with P.T.S.D. He finds happiness and a path to better health through a local non-profit that specializes in equine therapy. When the organization is forced to move, the community comes together to renovate their new home so more veterans like John will be able to get the help they need.
12.19.24	#RSR-134	Happy Houseboat Part 1 Retirees Tom and Betty Westhelle buy a dilapidated houseboat to renovate and use as a weekend getaway. They install siding and several custom features, as well as rebuilding all of the houseboat's systems.
12.26.24	#RSR-135	Happy Houseboat Part 2 In part 2 of Happy Houseboat, Tom & Betty Westhelle continue the renovation work on their 50-year-old houseboat.
01.02.25	#RSR-136	Designer Kitchen Dane and Judy Cornell have loved living in their 10,000 square foot estate for nearly twenty years, but they want to update the kitchen to entertain their large family. They'll create a more open space where Judy can cook with her grandchildren and remove a wall so it flows seamlessly into the dining room.
