

READY SET RENOVATE!

Episode Synopses for February 2025

Feed Date	Episode #	Description
02.06.25	#RSR-141	Designer Office An attorney wants to rework his home office into a minimalist, modern space. The office is very unique with a woven wood wall and cathedral ceilings. While repairing some cracks on the outside of the house, the contractor finds water damage around the window, which has penetrated the interior walls of the office.
02.13.25	#RSR-142	Historic House When a realtor finds herself an empty nester, she decides it's time to sell. She uses all of her realtor know-how to completely renovate her 100-year-old-home. We watch as this gorgeous house is furnished and learn tips from the pros about how to stage our own homes when it's time to sell.
02.20.25	#RSR-143	Holiday Rush A professional hockey player has a lot going on with his life in addition to a big career in the NHL. He recently had a baby with his fiancé and they've just purchased their first home. They love the beautiful water-front mansion, but with the holidays coming, they need to furnish their home, and fast! They meet with a designer and discuss their style and budget.
02.27.25	#RSR-145	Rental Property Re-do A former actress and model who has owned her own specialized paint company for several years decides to try her hand at flipping a house. The 1970s property she buys has been vacant for seven years and she hopes she doesn't uncover any major issues during the renovation process.