11.07.24	#RSR-128	Barbee Dream House Part 2 Already deep into a six figure spend on the renovation of their 1950s fixer, Will and Alex Barbee are crushed when they learn they have a rotten roof and a sinking subfloor. They work through tons of construction issues in phase one and are able to finish the interior and move in with their two toddler boys, just as their new baby daughter arrives.
11.14.24	#RSR-129	Vacay Revamp The Embry family lives in the snowy Midwest full-time and have jointly owned a vacation home at the beach for twenty years. While everyone wants to overhaul the kitchen and bathrooms, budget-conscious Bill tries to talk his sisters out of a few additional projects to save money.
11.21.24	#RSR-130	Dancer's Dream Entrepreneur Rachel Sapoznik thinks she's struck gold when she buys a pink 1980s condo in a luxury high rise on the beach. When she discovers it was once owned by a famous ballerina, she's even more smitten with the 2,600 square foot unit. Ever the dreamer, her goal is to turn the condo into a swanky urban retreat that her daughter and son-in-law could live in and be closer to her.
11.28.24	#RSR-131	Family Fixer Part 1 Ready, Set, Renovate! host Elizabeth Hart oversees the complete makeover of a 1970s waterfront condo that will serve as a family beach getaway and rental property. Navigating vulnerable marine life and 50-year-old building construction are just a couple of the challenges in this 'Family Fixer'.
